

Media Release

5735 47th Avenue Sacramento, CA 95824 (916) 643-9042 (916) 643-9049 FAX

For Immediate Release

Contact: Gabe Ross
(916) 643-9145
gabe-ross@scusd.edu

My Community Matters! aims to educate, empower South Sac neighborhood

Health services, food, entertainment and more at New Joseph Bonnheim Community Charter School this Saturday

April 13, 2016 (Sacramento): New Joseph Bonnheim Community Charter School is reaching out to the Colonial Village neighborhood this weekend with a health-themed community event.

My Community Matters! is aimed at promoting healthy lifestyles and empowering community members to advocate for the neighborhood's needs, said Principal Christie Wells-Artman. "Our goal is to help our community become stronger and healthier," Wells-Artman said.

The event will feature mariachi music, ballet folklorico dancers, balladeers, Aztec dancers and African drummers. Groups to have booths at the fair include La Familia Counseling Center, Molina Health, Consulate General of Mexico in Sacramento, Sacramento State, Carrington College, Comcast, SMUD and UC Davis' 4H Youth Development Program.

- WHAT: My Community Matters!
- WHEN: 10 a.m. to 2 p.m. on Saturday, April 16
- WHERE: New Joseph Bonnheim Community Charter School, 7300 Marin Ave., Sacramento, CA 95820
- WHO: Sacramento City Councilman Eric Guerra, Sacramento City Unified School District Board Members Gustavo Arroyo and Diana Rodriguez, Sacramento Fire and Police Department representatives, parents and children

###