Sac City Unified celebrates 80 determined new high school graduates

State schools chief to deliver commencement address

Eighty members of the Class of 2009 who lacked course credits or other graduation requirements last June will still be able to experience the pride and joy of high school graduation with their families on Monday, Oct. 26 at 6 p.m. Graduates will walk across the stage, having completed all requirements to receive a high school diploma such as passing the California high school exit exam or completing senior projects. Sacramento City Unified School District (SCUSD) will conduct its special ceremony for these students at the Charles A. Jones Career and Education Center. State Superintendent of Public Instruction Jack O'Connell will deliver the keynote address.

Who: State Superintendent of Public Instruction Jack O'Connell, SCUSD Board of Education President Roy Grimes and board members, Superintendent Jonathan P. Raymond, principals from each of the students' schools, graduates

What: Special SCUSD Fall Graduation ceremony for seniors who were not able to graduate in June. The annual ceremony allows students who successfully passed the California High School Exit Exam after their peers graduated or who had not completed all their graduation requirements by last spring.

When: Graduation Ceremony at 6 p.m. on Monday, Oct. 26.

Where: Charles A. Jones Career and Education Center, 5451 Lemon Hill Ave.
