

September 17, 2017

Welcome Reception

September 18, 2017

Teachers Law School Sessions

Location:

Anthony M. Kennedy Library and Learning Center, Sacramento, CA

Hotel:

Accommodations will be provided for some participants depending on distance and availability.

Cost: FREE

(a $50 refundable deposit will be collected upon admittance to the program)

Who can apply for the Teachers Law School?

- School Administrators
- District Administrators
- Curriculum Professionals
- Middle and High School Teachers

Application Deadline:

Monday, July 10, 2017

Questions?

Tamara Sivachelvan
TamaraS@abota.org
(800) 932-2682

TEACHERS LAW SCHOOL

Presented by CAL-ABOTA

In partnership with the Sacramento Chapter of ABOTA

September 18, 2017

Join us for a dynamic learning experience in civics education!

The Teachers Law School will provide an in-depth look at key civics topics addressed in the California History-Social Science Framework. Participants will walk away with a more thorough understanding of and renewed passion for civics and law-related education, along with ABOTA's classroom resources and presentation materials to help middle and high school teachers facilitate instruction.

Featured Speakers:

- Chief Justice Tani G. Cantil-Sakauye, Supreme Court of California
- Willie Brown, Former Mayor of San Francisco and California State Assembly Speaker
- Thomas V. Girardi, Past President of ABOTA
- Justice Arthur G. Scotland (Ret.), Third District Court of Appeal
- Justice William W. Bedsworth, Fourth District Court of Appeal
- Judge Morrison C. England, Jr., United States District Court
- John T. Nockleby, Professor of Law, Loyola Law School
- Michael P. Maguire, Vice President of ABOTA
- Douglas P. Adams, Sacramento Chapter of ABOTA

Moderators:

- William B. Smith, President-Elect of CAL-ABOTA
- N. Denise Taylor, President of CAL-ABOTA

Featured Topics:

- Q&A with the Chief Justice of California
- Separation of Powers (Panel)
- Civility Matters in Law & Society
- The Power of Media & Our Judicial System
- Mendez v. Westminster: Before Brown v. Board of Education

APPLY!

Application available at www.CALABOTACivics.org

Application Deadline: Monday, July 10!

