

Name: _____

Date: _____

Homework

Journey to Meaning

Shape of Story

Road to Knowledge

Power to Persuade

Lesson Set: Once Upon a Time: A New Look at Fairy Tales

LitLoop Components:

Reading

Writing

Speaking

Listening

Note to Parents:

Noticing the illustrations and how they contribute to the overall story is an important part of reading comprehension. Sometimes, as readers, we get caught up in the words and forget about all of the rich details provided by the illustrations. When you read with your second grader tonight, be sure to hover over the illustrations and call attention to how they connect and add to the story.

Assignment: Learning from Illustrations

In class, we discussed all of the ways that illustrations help us understand a story. For homework, choose a favorite story to read aloud with a parent or family member. As you read, pay special attention to the illustrations.

Answer the question below in a complete sentence.

What is one thing you learned from the illustrations about the main character, setting, or events in the story?
