

Expanding Your Horizons Conference

Motivating young women in science + mathematics
Saturday, October 11, 2014

Sacramento State and the AT&T non-profit group, Women of AT&T, will host the 7th Annual Expanding Your Horizons (EYH) Conference on the Sacramento State Campus on Saturday, October 11, 2014.

This event is a one-day science and math conference for 6th-8th grade girls, designed to encourage and empower young women to pursue education and careers in science, technology, engineering and mathematics.

Learning experiences include

- Fun Hands-On Workshops
- Exhibits (Career Demonstration and more)
- Discussion and Interaction with Industry Leaders, University Faculty, and College Students
- Parent/Guardian Activities

The Expanding Your Horizons conference fee is $30 per attendee and includes a full day of activities, a lunch with beverage, and a t-shirt. In addition, this year conference attendees will also receive a newly published book on STEM for middle school girls: PLAYBOOK for Teens, a $20 value book, which features fascinating women in STE@M, where girls can follow their "plays" and create a Dream Career. One of the role models featured in the book will be one of this year's conference speakers.

The deadline for registering is Friday, September 26. No registrations will be accepted on-site.
