The CALIFORNIA PARENT CENTER
College of Education, San Diego State University
Sponsored by SCUSD District Advisory Council

Wednesday, February 9, 2011
8:00 am – 3:00 pm
Serna Center
5735 47th Ave.
Sacramento, CA 95824

Who Should Attend?

❖ This award-winning training is recommended for all schools, but is especially designed for Title I schools, and schools in Program Improvement.
❖ Teams from schools (k-12) are encouraged to attend. School teams are composed of five members from a cross section of the school’s leadership team that should include one member from your School Site Council.

Training Content:

❖ Using Achievement-Focused partnerships at primary and secondary levels to improved academic achievement.
❖ Understanding the different types of parental involvement models that have the greatest impact on student level achievement.
❖ Organizing an effective Partnership Action Team (PAT) to plan programs and activities directly linked to academic goals for students and meet State and Federal parent involvement requirements.
❖ Engaging families with student data to increase achievement.
❖ Identifying the strengths of culturally and linguistically diverse school communities.
❖ Reaching all families through welcoming schools.

Cost: FREE for district schools. Participants will be provided with training materials, continental breakfast and lunch.

Seats are Limited !!!
