

Is Penelope Correct?

Penelope has just calculated $3 \times 7 = 21$. She thinks that the product for 4×7 is going to be 3 more than the product for 3×7 .

What do you think Penelope is thinking?

Do you agree or disagree? Why?

With a partner, create a representation that matches the labels in each of the boxes to help Penelope.

Area Model	Equal Groups
Repeated Addition	Word Problem