1.0 SCOPE:

1.1 This procedure describes the compilation and review of district-wide bell schedules to determine compliance with state requirements, to provide a cursory review of compliance with labor contract provisions, and to serve as a resource to site managers during schedule planning.

2.0 RESPONSIBILITY:

2.1 Internal Audit Staff

3.0 APPROVAL AUTHORITY:

3.1 Internal Audit Manager

4.0 DEFINITIONS:

4.1 Bell Schedules: School’s schedule of instruction, including breaks and lunch period. Each school has a bell schedule to inform staff and students of each period’s start and completion time throughout the school day

4.2 Attestation forms: Declaration approved by site administrator listing number of instructional days for the school year. Distinction is made for regular, shortened, and miscellaneous days to total the required number of days for the school year

4.3 School Attendance Calendar: School calendar for July through June listing all instructional and non-instructional days

4.4 Collective Bargaining Agreement (CBA): Negotiated agreement between the District and a particular group of employees represented by their respective Union

4.5 Working papers: Audit documentation used as evidence to support auditor’s conclusions

5.0 PROCEDURE:

5.1 Review each site’s bell schedule, calculate the annual instructional minutes offering, state legal requirements and significance of penalties for non-compliance

5.2 Communicate instructional minute issues to site administration for resolution

5.3 Communicate potential labor contract issues to Human Resource Services Department

5.4 Compile minutes for state reporting purposes
