“We’ve learned over the past two decades that young people are doing innovative, important work to improve communities at home and abroad,” said Prudential Chairman and CEO John Strangfeld. “We honor their contributions in the hope that their example will inspire others to consider what they can do to make a difference.”

“NASSP is proud to honor middle level and high school students who go above and beyond to better the lives of others,” said JoAnn Bartoletti, executive director of NASSP. “We are inspired every year by their stories of service, and look forward once again to celebrating young volunteers across America.”

LET'S CELEBRATE YOUTH VOLUNTEERISM

The Prudential Spirit of Community Awards can help you recognize outstanding young people from your school or organization, encourage volunteerism – and draw attention to your good work, too. The program recognizes honorees at these levels:

Local Honorees. Each school and local organization can select one or more Local Honoree(s), who each receive a Certificate of Achievement and advance to state-level judging. Local Honorees who qualify can also receive the President's Volunteer Service Award. Two runners-up can be recognized with Certificates of Merit.

You may select one middle level Local Honoree for every 1,000 young people in grades 5-8 in your school or organization, and/or one high school Local Honoree for every 1,000 young people in grades 9-12.

State-Level Honorees. One middle level student and one high school student in each of the 50 states and the District of Columbia will be named State Honorees next February. Each receives $1,000, a silver medallion and an all-expense-paid trip with a parent or guardian to Washington, D.C., in late April for gala awards ceremonies and other exciting events. Runner-up honorees at the state level receive bronze medallions or Certificates of Excellence.

National Honorees. In Washington, five middle level students and five high school students will be named America's top youth volunteers of the year by our national selection committee. Each honoree receives an additional $5,000, a gold medallion and a trophy for their school or organization. Honorees also receive $5,000 grants from The Prudential Foundation for nonprofit charitable organizations of their choice.

Honorees and their projects are frequently honored with commendations from mayors, governors and members of Congress.
