Sacramento Schools Celebrate Read Across America Day

SACRAMENTO—Sacramento City Unified Schools are joining Read Across America celebrations across the country. Fans of beloved children’s author Theodor Seuss Geisel, better known as Dr. Seuss, will celebrate his 113th birthday on Thursday, March 2, 2017. His books and influence on young readers far and wide is recognized each year by The National Education Association (NEA). To celebrate reading and honor Dr. Seuss, the NEA established Read Across America Day on Dr. Seuss’ birthday as an annual nationwide celebration of reading. Across the country, thousands of schools, libraries, and community centers participate by bringing together kids, teens, adults and books.

Sacramento City Unified School District Board of Education member and First Vice President Jessie Ryan will read to students at Pacific Elementary School from 9 -11 a.m.
