Hello,

Factory Direct Housing has reached out to the Sacramento City Unified School District multiple times, over six voicemails, in addition to four email inquiries, and we have yet to receive a response.

Our customer Steven Li is waiting for the school district to respond to the matter of paying school fees for the new housing construction we are managing.

Steven Li can not receive the issuance of a building permit until he pays the school fees to SCUSD. Without a building permit, the project is at a halt and pushing back the completion deadline nearing an impossible turnaround time that can leave him homeless.

The Sacramento City Unified School District must respond and advise how Steven Li can complete the required school fee payment for Factory Direct Housing to finish building his home.
