Week of the School Administrators

October 9-15, 2022

School Administrators Week is celebrated in the second full week in October.

School Administrators Week is an opportunity for the District to recognize and acknowledge the administrators who support the students, staff and community, in the support of students' success.

This is a week to celebrate, appreciate, and recognize the dedicated and hard working administrators of the District.

WE ALL THANK YOU

For your commitment, dedication and hardwork at being THE BRIDGE to help our students, staff and the community reach success through as many opportunities as possible.
