Dear Board,

I appreciate all the time and energy each of you spend to connect with the families and staff in your trustee areas. However, there is an essential disconnect when the attendance boundary school assignments, particularly the assigned high school, do not align with the trustee area boundaries. It's one more barrier to creating a school district culture in which families look forward to sending their kids to their neighborhood school, and one that you could direct the demographic consultant to address in this process.

Respectfully,

Alison French-Tubo
