Behind every great School
is an amazing Principal

Message for the UPE President, Judy Montgomery:

“I would like to recognize that this has been a particularly difficult year for all school district employees but that principals have been at the site during the pandemic assisting with the day-to-day operations as well as providing support to teachers, parents, and students. Principals are truly the front line workers at schools and during the pandemic they have gone above and beyond in keeping our school communities intact, thriving, and positive.”

School Nutrition Employee Week

May 3-7, 2021

The History Of School Lunch Hero Day

School Lunch Hero Day began May 4, 2012 and was created by a partnership between the School Nutrition Association, and children’s author Jarrett Krosoczka—the author of a number of picture books including the “Lunch Lady” series who was inspired after returning to his old school and finding his childhood lunch lady remained and remembered him.

School Nutrition staff often serve generations of children and are among the few people on the school campus that touch nearly every child every school day and year after year. We acknowledge our nutrition staff for their hard work, commitment to serve and validate their contribution in the lives of school children.

California Day of the Teacher- May 12, 2021

Resolution No. 3201: Recognition of California Day of the Teacher- May 12,2021

In honor of the California Day of the Teacher and National School Nurses Day, LA-based social justice artist Audrey Chan created this poster for the California Teachers Association.

For Audrey, this year's theme suggested the image of a field of California poppies to represent the nurturing role of educators and classified staff in students' lives, growing their capacity for knowledge and empathy. Let's show our appreciation for educators on May 12th and every day of the school year.
