Expository Reading and Writing Curriculum (ERWC) Introductory Course

For High School English Teachers

The ERWC is aligned with the California Content Standards and emphasizes the in-depth study of expository, analytical and argumentative reading and writing.

- Develop strategies, abilities, and habits of mind of fluent readers and writers through rhetorical analysis of compelling issues and interesting texts
- Build deep conceptual understandings that transform how students read, write, listen, speak and think
- Transfer their literacy skills to new situations and increase student agency
- Acquire academic literacy skills necessary for success in college and the world of work

Teachers who attend the workshop will receive materials, access to the ERWC online community where all 9th-12th modules are housed, and an opportunity to calibrate with peers regarding school-level expectations with college-level expectations.

ERWC 3.0 includes:

- Revised ERWC curriculum for grade 12 course
- New ERWC course for grade 11
- Modules for grades 9-12
- Concept and portfolio mini-modules
- Full-length book, drama, and issue modules
- Specific modules with integrated and designated ELD at grades 9-12
