

Sacramento City Unified School District

Putting Children First

FAIR Education Act: SB 48

Board of Education Meeting

February 2, 2012

FAIR Education Act: SB 48

- Fair, Accurate, Inclusive, Respectful or FAIR Education Act
- Effective January 1, 2012
- Extends the Protections against Discriminatory Content in Instructional Materials

FAIR Education Act: SB 48

History-Social Sciences Must Include Role and Contributions of...

- Persons with Disabilities
- Lesbian, Gay, Bisexual, and Transgender (LGBT) Americans
- Members of Other Ethnic and Cultural Groups
- Prohibits Adoption of Discriminatory Instructional Materials

Instructional Materials

- No Implementation Directives
- State Board of Education's Moratorium - Instructional Materials until 2015-2016

Major Initiatives

- Awareness Building
- Communication to Stakeholders
- Analysis of Existing Resources
- Scalability

Next Steps

Awareness Building & Communication to Stakeholders

- Community/Parent Meetings
- Leadership Meetings
- Site-Level Faculty Meetings
- Communications Plan

Next Steps

Analysis of Existing Resources & Scalability

- Analyze History-Social Science Curriculum Materials
- Convene History-Social Science Committee
- Partner with School Districts

Sacramento City Unified School District

Putting Children First

Questions