

K-2 Sample Daily Student Schedule

Focus: ELA and math

Tech Support needed? Can't remember your student login and password for email access to Google Classroom / Clever?

We are here for you!

Email our Help Desk at support@scusd.edu.

NOTE: The schedule below is a suggestion only. Most learning will not be synchronous (Teachers and students being in the same digital space at the same time for the lesson), so that students and families can engage in the learning at times that suit them best during the day.

Your school will be contacting you with important details for your student.
